4) Without in any way minimising the importance of the great purpose which the Political Affairs Committee is serving in the higher interests of the State, I respectfully beg to point out that the grant of Daily Allowance under T.A. rules is based on the fundamental assumption that the rate is intended to cover actual out-of-pocket expenses which the person has to incur for keeping up his position and status. The maximum amount of daily allowance allowed for our officers and non-officials is Rs 7-8-0 and this rate has been fixed for the Members both of this Committee and of the Reforms Committee. Any payment in excess of this basic maximum in the case of one Committee does not stand justified, is not capable of being brought under our T.A. Rules and may create an inconvenien precedent.

5) I beg to point out that a special rate of Rs 10/- is at present being allowed to Members of Council and The Chief Justice, ~~etc.~~, by virtue of their social duties and of their high position as a consequence of which they are called upon to face an expenditure of a type that is not generally expected to be incurred by others.

6) I do not think that it would be advisable to support any measure which may lend countenance to the view that non-official members of a Committee stand on a footing with Members of Council and are similarly circumstanced in regard to the obligation of standards of expenditure.
